

Striking Miners Vote Not To Return To Pits

Go Against Suggestion Of J. L. Lewis

Pittsburgh, Jan. 14—(AP)—A big bloc of striking United Mine Workers today defied tradition and voted down John L. Lewis' suggestion that they go back to work Monday.

Exact figures are not available but at least nine locals representing more than 11,000 bituminous diggers balked at their union leader's order to end a week-old strike.

"Five days or nothing," their spokesmen angrily declared. Interpretations of the action differed. A few observers close to the coal situation regarded the move with some suspicion.

Miners No Longer Silent

But to the majority it is simply a months old rebellion in their contract fight that finally burst through the traditional shell of miner silence.

However, for the operators and a coal-starved public there is little satisfaction in the miners' move.

Before leaving for Springfield, Ill., to attend the funeral today of John L. Lewis' mother, John Bussarelli, president of UMW District No. 5 in Pittsburgh, declared:

"The situation is sort of cloudy. It is strictly up to the locals whether they follow Lewis' suggestion."

Bussarelli, who is the field leader of some 20,000 miners, planned to return home immediately to follow action being taken by locals in their week-end voting.

Employed In Captive Mines

Most of the miners who have voted not to return to work are employed in captive mines. They're so-called because they are operated by steel companies.

The nation's soft coal supply is dangerously low because of a series of strikes last year and the three-day work week instituted by Lewis in December.

Reports from throughout the country indicate that only the protracted and unreasonable mild weather has prevented hardship in many areas.

A Pittsburgh Consol Mines official said two locals in Harrison county, W. Va., where his firm has mines, had voted to return to the pits on Monday.

A decision generally affecting all diggers in northern West Virginia is expected tomorrow when 300 local UMW officials meet at Grant Town.

Adams Co. Board Of Health Cut To 2 By Resignations

Quincy, Ill., Jan. 14—(P)—The Adams county board of health was whittled from seven members to two today by three new resignations.

The resignations of Lawrence H. Broemmel, Dr. Walter E. Davidson and Elmo A. Danforth, were a consequence of the ousting last Tuesday of the board's chairman, Dr. Hugh M. Tarpley.

Dr. Tarpley, who is chairman of the state dental health council, was serving a term which ordinarily would have expired July 1.

Tuesday, Vernon O'Brien, chairman of the county board of supervisors, announced that he had appointed another dentist, Dr. James Haffner, to succeed Tarpley.

After O'Brien told health board members at a meeting Wednesday that his action was taken at the request of "pressure groups," Dr. Walter E. Stevenson, president of the Illinois State Medical Society, resigned, declaring O'Brien was making the body "a political football."

The three who resigned today said they considered O'Brien's action "an obvious vote of lack of confidence in the board."

The two members remaining on the health board are Mrs. Roy Arnold and Mrs. Karl Wharton. Mrs. Wharton has been out of town since before the ousting of Dr. Tarpley.

Mrs. Lewis Buried In Springfield

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 14—(P)—Mrs. Anna Louisa Lewis, mother of John L. Lewis, was buried today in Oak Ridge cemetery between the graves of her husband and son, George.

Before the burial, John L. Lewis, chief of the United Mine Workers and her eldest child, sat solemnly through simple services in a two-story white frame house.

Lewis and four brothers and two sisters witnessed the rites from a side room, concealed from the 50 mourners crowding the living room where the silver colored steel casket was placed.

They heard Welsh hymns played on violin and piano, and prayers intoned by Dr. Richard Paul Grabel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

"Her children shall rise up and call her blessed," said Dr. Grabel reading from Proverbs 31.

Rescuers Talk With 1 Of Trapped Miners

Mahanoy City, Pa., Jan. 14—(P)—

One of two brothers trapped in a mine cavern talked with weary rescuers early tonight and gave instructions as to how to find him.

John Becker, a veteran miner and member of the rescue party, said he heard the voice of Joseph Burda, 30, a miner entombed by a collapse of earth yesterday.

Becker said Burda heard the powerful shovel rescuers are using to scoop away the earth. The trapped miner asked that the shovel be placed above a chute some 40 to 50 feet from where the rescuers are digging a shaft parallel to the slope which is closed. Becker said the chute is about 60 feet from the surface.

No word has been heard of Burda's brother, Edward, 25, who was caught in the cavern.

After Becker relayed the information from Joseph, rescuers feverishly renewed their efforts. Earlier they had had three dynamite blasts underground.

"There's no doubt about it," exclaimed one jubilant rescue worker. "Somebody's trying to blast his way out."

The first blast was heard shortly before noon today, a second less than an hour later and a third at about 3 p.m.

By that time the 'dozer had dug as deeply as was safe, and one of the rescuers said he thought they were "within a few feet" of the trapped men.

State mine inspector John Morgan of Prackville, Pa., estimated the brothers were trapped about 120 feet underground. At first he expressed doubt they could reach them in less than several days.

But the bulldozer made the job much faster.

Morgan said he thought the men—or one, if only one escaped—had scrambled into a passageway only about 40 feet underground.

A third brother escaped the cavern. Kasimir Burda, 32, was caught in the rush of earth, but managed to leap free, jumping clear out of his boots.

Despite an injured leg and a severe case of shock, Kasimir pitched into the rescue work for a time. Later he went home under a doctor's care.

Two other brothers, Frank and John, also helped the rescue workers claw through the rain-sogged earth in an attempt to reach the trapped men.

Meet Of British Commonwealth Ends In Success

Colombo, Ceylon, Jan. 14—(P)—

The five-day British commonwealth conference ended today with delegates declaring unanimously that much had been accomplished though results might not be apparent immediately.

At the conference's only open session, Australian Foreign Minister Percy C. Spender declared: "We live under the shadow of approaching storm. Whether it will break upon us or pass by, we feel the urgency about our deliberations and that time has not been running in our favor."

The nearest approach to a concrete result came from an Australian proposal—a determination to help southeast Asia raise its living standards to counter communism.

The conference agreed to place before the eight governments represented a consultative committee to plan a program of self-aid and mutual help in southeast Asia. The commonwealth countries are to assess the amount of credit and technical assistance they can make available for the development program. The consultative committee is to meet in Canberra, Australian capital, within a few months. The delegates were understood to hope for United States aid in such a program.

WILL SEEK CLERK NOMINATION

Hillsboro, Ill., Jan. 14—(P)—William E. Cole of Hillsboro, former Montgomery county circuit clerk and presently editor of the Weekly Vandalia, Ill., union, announced today he will seek the Republican nomination for clerk of the third Illinois Appellate division.

Purslane Is Weed Infesting Onion Fields

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 14—(P)—Hundreds of candidates for state-wide and district offices will begin filing nominating petitions here Monday—the first day for entering the April 11 Illinois primary.

Democrats will submit a state slate headed by U. S. Senator Scott W. Lucas during the eight day filing period. Lucas to date is unopposed for re-nomination.

Republicans are leaving their nominations up for grabs but only one race—for state treasurer—has the earmarks of a knock down battle.

Ex-congressman Everett M. Dirksen of Pekin has no opposition in sight as the GOP nominee for Lucas' Senate seat.

Candidates have to file petitions with the secretary of state's election department for:

U. S. senator, state treasurer, state school superintendent, supreme court clerk, congress, all 153 Illinois House seats, 26 Senate seats in the odd-numbered districts, appellate court clerks and state central committee-men. The committee members are elected in the primary.

Two years ago approximately 500 candidates filed for state, congressional and legislative offices in the primary. Election officials say they expect about the same number this time. Most nominating papers are presented the opening day for filing.

On the republican side, Vernon L. Nickell is seeking his third term as head of the state's public school system, and Earle Benjamin Seavey is running for reelection as state supreme court clerk.

Searcy faces opposition from George Moffat, a Springfield investment man, and Nickell from C. G. Burgess of Carbondale.

Reds Seize U.S. Property In China; Officers Recalled

Hurricane Winds Pound East As Worst Blizzard Hits Far West

By The Associated Press

Winds up to hurricane force tore at the East Saturday while the century's worst blizzard was pounding at the far west.

The elements were wound up to such a violent frenzy that "stay home" warnings were issued for persons in New York State, the Pacific Northwest and some Rocky Mountain areas.

At least 29 persons were blown or crushed to death, frozen, drowned, or killed in traffic mishaps caused by the storms. Damage was widespread.

The eastern winds shattered plate glass windows, toppled trees and power lines and even blew a bus off the road. One man was killed at Stowe, Vt., when 70-mile-an-hour winds blew a tree down on his automobile.

The western blizzard was traveling eastward. In its path were Montana, Wyoming, the Dakotas, Kansas and Nebraska.

The flood threat in the midwest was expected to ease with the advent of lower temperatures. But in Arkansas and heavy rains rose to danger points, forcing evacuation of numerous lowland residents.

In the California citrus areas, growers were warned to start heating citrus orchards early Saturday night to prepare for an expected temperature reading of 10 degrees below freezing. Los Angeles had its first snow since Jan. 11, 1949.

Eight persons perished and four were missing in the Pacific northwest's worst blizzard of the century. Two of the victims were children who froze to death on a snow blocked Washington road after their car stalled a mile from their home.

The storm, bringing bitter cold, hurled a paralyzing mantle of snow on Washington, Oregon and northern California and raced with undiminished fury into Idaho and Montana.

The Idaho highway department did not even bother to send out snow plows as the storm pounded at the Idaho Falls-Pocatello area. Strong winds caused severe snow drifting in Utah.

Battering winds raked the eastern half of the country spreading a trail of damage from Iowa to New York. Some buildings were unroofed, trees and utility poles were toppled and glass windows were caved in.

Floodwaters in some midwestern rivers edged higher but much colder weather moving in was expected to slow the runoff of ground water temporarily.

Western, northern and central New York was hardest hit by the destructive winds. Gusts topped hurricane velocity of 75 miles an hour and reached as high as 95 miles an hour in some places. Indianapolis clocked a 60 mile an hour sustained wind, with gusts up to 100 miles an hour.

A Greyhound bus was blown off the road by an 80 mile an hour wind near the Canadian border village of Malone, N. Y. A passenger was injured. Broken power lines forced three Buffalo road stations went off the air. On Lake Erie, many small boats were wrecked.

Winds which sometimes reached hurricane force swept New York City, shattering plate glass windows and injuring several persons. Gusts up to 78 miles an hour were reported at LaGuardia Field, but did not affect plane schedules. Idlewild, the international airport at Queens, had winds as strong as 60 miles an hour which, churned up thick clouds of dust and sand.

In a special bulletin or areas of New York State, the weather bureau warned it would be dangerous to be outdoors. With most highways blocked by snow in the Pacific Northwest, motorists were advised not to travel except in emergencies. Highway patrol home until storms pass in that role in Utah cautioned motorists to area.

State Dept. Blasts Actions Of Commies

Washington, Jan. 14—(AP)—In contempt of American protests, the Chinese Communists today swarmed in and took over the United States consulate office in Peiping.

American patience snapped. The state department immediately ordered all its official personnel out of Red China. It reportedly acted with President Truman's direct approval.

It blasted at the Communists' latest anti-American move as "a flagrant violation of our treaty rights and of the most elementary standards of international usage and conduct."

Lawmakers Aroused

Angry U.S. lawmakers denounced the invasion and seizure of American property in the strongest terms. Republicans redoubled their criticism of the administration's handling of Far Eastern affairs. Several said this latest insult should rule out all possibility of U.S. recognition of the Chinese Communist regime.

Senator Kefauver (D-Tenn.) declared bluntly:

"We should classify the Chinese Communists as outlaws and cease to do business with them."

Senator Knowland (R-Calif.), riled for months by the State department's handling of the tense Far Eastern situation, demanded the resignation of all administration officials responsible for American policy there.

KNOWLEDGE MUST BE USABLE

Dr. Edmund W. Sinnott, president of Yale's scientific school, suggests that 10,000,000 amateur scientists be mobilized to help push back the frontiers of knowledge.

As Sinnott sees it, this swarm of researchers would go about collecting bugs, flowers, rocks and other items of nature; observing stars; studying the weather in various out-of-the-way spots, and otherwise blazing new trails.

We'll agree to Dr. Sinnott's proposal on one condition: that another army of at least 1,000,000 be assembled to make something understandable out of the hodge-podge the researchers will collect.

Scientists are already too far behind as it is in digesting the mountains of information scholars continue to pile up. We need not only to extend the frontiers; we need to put the findings into manageable condition. Then they'll have some meaning for the ordinary man who wants to understand his world.

They know we mean business. Never before in peacetime has the United States told a foreign government to close its consulates in this country.

This sharp rebuff has now been delivered to Hungary in reply to its arrest and imprisonment of an American, Robert Vogeler, assistant vice president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company.

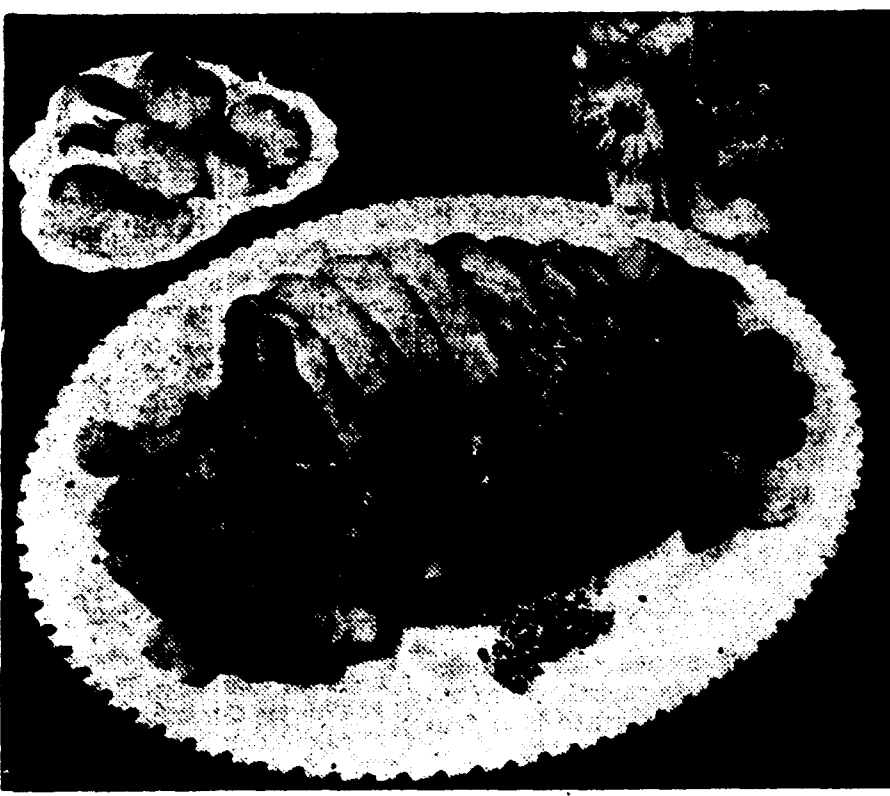

Our government was moved to act also because of restrictions Hungary placed on the consular work of the U. S. legation in Budapest.

The closing of Hungary's consulates in New York and Cleveland will cost that country two prime outlets for the spreading of Communist propaganda. The consulates have had little else to do, since Hungarian trade with the U. S. has sagged to less than $3,000,000 a year.

The American order is the second step taken in an effort to stir Hungary into action on the Vogeler case. Earlier we barred U. S. citizens from further travel there. In the present instance, Hungary was warned that further retaliation might come if "the rights and interests of the United States and its nationals continue to be so grossly violated." That might mean severing diplomatic relations.

Our government's action was commendable. The inevitable stalling and double-talk we get from Russia and her satellites in these repeated violations of Americans' liberties have become intolerable. It's time to deal sternly with such crude police tactics.

Savory Shoulder Roast

A thrifty purchase... but no one will believe it when you serve this juicy rolled pork shoulder roast garnished with bright cooked carrot slices. Spicy pears serve as the companion side dish.

Pork Shoulder Roast Aids Family Budget

When shopping at your meat dealer's can't you just visualize that juicy pork roast centering your dinner table accompanied by fluffy mashed potatoes and plenty of brown gravy? With one eye still on the food budget you can make that a reality by choosing the less demanded shoulder roast.

An attractive version of the pork shoulder is a trim, rolled roast. The meat is boned, then firmly rolled and tied. This square cut prepared shoulder roast is another possibility. When boned, a pocket is formed to fill with a vegetable or art fruit dressing.

Proper Roasting
Either the rolled or cushion-style roast, along with the familiar loin roast, is prepared according to the same principle. The roast is seasoned with salt and pepper, then placed on a rack in a shallow pan. Leave the roasting pan uncovered, do not add water, and there is no need for basting so the roast actually requires little attention during the entire cooking period.

Fresh pork is always cooked at a 350 degree F. temperature until it is well done to be at its rich, flavorful best. The center hot loin and the cushion-style shoulder roasts are cooked from 35 to 40 minutes per pound. The rolled shoulder requires about 10 minutes per pound longer roasting time.

Meat Thermometer
A meat thermometer is of great aid in determining the exact degree of doneness. Before the roast goes in the oven, the thermometer is inserted in the center of the meat so that it is neither resting in fat nor on bone. The pork roast is cooked throughout when the meat thermometer registers 185 degrees F.

To prepare the flavorful gravy, pour off the excess drippings, then combine equal amounts of flour and drippings following the proportion of two tablespoons of flour for each cup of water or milk. Remaining meat drippings should be poured into a jar, covered and stored in the refrigerator for later use.

For a holiday fruit cup add pomegranate seeds to a fruit cup for a festive and delicious-tasting combination.

South Side Circle Has Program On "Precious Gems"
Mrs. E. S. Hutson entertained members of the South Side Circle at her home, 876 West State street, Friday afternoon.

A short business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. E. A. Schoedsack, during which a program committee consisting of Mrs. E. A. Schoedsack, Mrs. C. E. Roach, Mrs. Ethel Strawn and Miss Emma Hunter, and a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. George Fuhr, Mrs. E. G. Caldwell and Mrs. J. Franklin Epler, were appointed.

The program chairman, Mrs. E. J. Underbrink had charge of the program. She was presented by Mrs. R. G. Baker. Mrs. Underbrink's subject was "Precious Gems of Interest."

She began by stating that "only God can make a gem." She read from the Bible the description of the robes worn by the Hebrew priests, stating that the robes were adorned with precious gems, a different gem for each of the 12 tribes of Israel.

Mrs. Underbrink described many different gems, discussing their beauty, where mined and their value. She mentioned a ruby, emerald, opal, onyx, garnet, topaz, sapphire, amethyst, diamond and others, and related the history of the Hope diamond.

Prepare To Launch March Of Dimes

Mayor Ernest L. Hoagland is shown examining the coin container, which will be placed in various business houses throughout Jacksonville and Morgan county during the annual March of Dimes campaign, Jan. 16-31.

With Mayor Hoagland are John Bellatti (left), president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is directing the drive in Morgan County; Jack Mathews, (second from the right), drive chairman; and Donald M. Douglass, (extreme right), campaign treasurer.

On Saturday, Mayor Hoagland issued a proclamation calling upon all residents of Jacksonville to join the 1950 March of Dimes of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis so that the organization "may draw renewed strength to continue its work of mercy for all whom infantile paralysis may menace."

The city's chief executive in his polo toll was upwards of 40,000 cases, and that the cost to the National Foundation for care of patients in 1949 alone will approximate $31,000,000. The two-week March of Dimes appeal opens Monday, Jan. 16.

Text of the proclamation follows: WHEREAS, at no time before in the history of the United States has infantile paralysis placed so heavy a burden on community after community, striking down loved ones

Will Papa Ever Wear Skirts?

BY HAL BOYLE
New York, June 14—(AP)—There is a new theory that men ought to spend less time chasing skirts—and more time wearing them.
Yep, that's right, fellows, S-K-T-R-T-S for men instead of T-R-O-U-S-E-R-S.

Naturally this idea didn't come from a man. It was cooked up by a group of high-priced lady designers. They were asked by the costume institute of the Metropolitan Museum of Art to figure out what the man of the future ought to wear.

Among other items, the girls suggested: Jackets of pale yellow doekin with big, big buttons.
A wrap-around skirt of plaid silk.
A collarless suit with a sewn-in skirt drape.

Berets with colorful sunburst patterns.
Shoulder strap leather handbags. I would be the last to underestimate the power of women. But if the man of the future is ever induced to

COMMUNICATION

To the Citizens of Jacksonville: Only recently it was brought most vividly to our attention that there are certain matters about which we could be more careful, and avoid tempting the youthful joyriders, and juveniles of our community. Little do we realize what temptations can do for boys and girls who may never have thoroughly recognized that they should not take what belongs to another.

A few days ago one of the youths of our community took a car and with another friend drove it to several places, and then left it on Walnut street. Now all of us recognize that this was an act against which there is a law, and the offender must be punished. In the January issue of the magazine published by the Chicago Motor Club, I found this short item:

"Absent-mindedness may be appropriate for the arm chair dreamer, but not for motorists, especially those who forget and leave their ignition keys in their car. Parked cars with ignition keys in place are temptation to thieves and youthful joyriders. Always check before you leave your car to be certain you have removed the keys."

That is the matter that interests me and about which I am firmly convinced something should be done. To me the person who leaves his keys in the switch of the car, is placing a temptation before the youth to take that car and drive it away. We don't let the key stay in the door of our house on the outside where all can see it; if we leave the key it is generally on the inside. But the motorist will leave his key in clear view, and then when someone drives it away he wants that person to receive the full extent of the law. Should we not consider the person who fails to remove his keys from the ignition as contributing through his negligence in such matters, and maybe he too should receive some penalty for this act.

I have been informed that in some cities of our state there is a fine imposed upon the person or persons who do not remove their car keys when they park. If a policeman finds the keys in the car, these keys are taken to the police station and can be secured by paying the fine. Maybe the time has come for our city to consider some way by which there could be a penalty placed upon the person who fails to remove his keys from the ignition, as well as the person who drives that car away because of the temptation placed before the youth. One has only to read articles concerning car thefts, and generally they are stolen because the keys were in the ignition. This I feel contributes greatly to this problem; may we not give united consideration to this problem; the solution may not be easy, but it will never be solved if we don't put forth some effort. I am taking the place of youth who might want to speak concerning this matter but might feel that society would not listen to them. We have plenty of temptations placed before the youth. I hope that someone who may be in authority to do something about this matter will take it under consideration soon.

An interested citizen,
C. F. JANSSEN.

Up Their Sleeves: Spring

Spectacular sleeves are the changing silhouette's abliest ally. The "tulips" (upper left) carry fullness to the top of a white dress with a full cuff. The draped cuffs on full push-up sleeves (lower left) dramatize a coat dress of white pique. The "lampshade" sleeves trimmed with cotton fringe (center) wing out from the deep yoke of a gray linen dress. A "slash seam" rises from sleeves of flame colored jacket (right).

By EPSIE KINARD, NEA Fashion Editor

New York—(NEA)—Sleeves cut a wide swathe this spring to help designers who are plumping for the "Top Look."

Noisiest clamor for this new look comes from that arbiter of fashion, Christian Dior. In his effort to carry all silhouette interest upward, he has an able ally in full, curvy or spectacular sleeves.

One example is seen in short, full "lampshade" sleeves trimmed with white cotton fringe. These wing out from the deep yoke of a gray Irish linen which Dior accents with a black taffeta neck-tie. Tiers lined dress are faked by bands of cotton up from yoke to hem of this belted "lampshade" fringe.

A belted white pique coat-dress of Dior's design owes its "top look" to the most unusual sleeves which have shown up since the advent of the leg o' mutton. Cuffs accented by black buttons are turned back in a draped effect on full sleeves to give them their spectacular design.

Monte Sano's collection of sleeves includes the funnel, the lampshade, the slash, the overlap and the tulip. One white doeskin suit of his design—slim skirt with a short peplum-styled jacket above it—owes its advanced 1950 look to elbow length sleeves shaped like tulips. A "slash" seam over-lapped sleeves of a loose, short jacket of flame colored lanel fleece.

Prevent Strain By Mounting Stairs In Proper Posture

By ALICIA HART, NEA Staff Writer

Many women don't feel their age till they put a foot on the first step of a long flight of stairs. Then bones and muscles ache in anticipation of the long haul upward. Much of the stress, strain and actual damage done to the body in mounting stairs can be avoided if the legs and muscles are used properly.

To avoid huffing and puffing, start out with a straight back. Place the forward foot, pointing straight ahead, almost flat on the first step. Don't let the heel overhang. Place so as to get as much of that forward foot on the step as possible. Resting the weight of your body on the advanced foot, raise the body upward with thigh and leg muscles. The rear leg will straighten of its own accord and it in turn can be moved upward and forward without the slightest strain.

At first this flat-footed approach to stair climbing will seem awkward but when it becomes a habit, stair climbing will be a cinch.

Coming down the stairs can involve less wear and tear on nerves and muscles if you will step down with posture erect and will employ the proper technique of using your feet and legs.

Let the ball of the descending foot strike the step below, with the rest of the foot following. Straighten the forward leg. Bend the rear leg sharply at the knees as it starts coming downward.

For descending with grace, avoid swaying from side to side. Keep your toes pointed straight ahead, your body balanced over the forward foot and your weight on the outside border of that foot, not on the arch.

New Pin-Up Technique Makes Long-Lasting Curls

Judy Tyler, Teaneck, N.J., beauty contest winner, gives a new twist to pin-up curls.

By Alicia Hart, NEA Staff Writer

There's a new twist on the pin-up curl which will give you a better-looking and longer-lasting curl. It is literally a twist that you give to the strand of hair that is rolled up.

Instead of rolling up a strand as you usually do, give it—before winding—a twist with thumb and forefinger to twist it all the way to the scalp. That done, roll the twisted strand the way you usually do over your finger.

If you want to go one step farther toward perfecting a pin-curl, maneuver the ends of the strand of hair which are on the outside of your finger into the hole which is vacated by your finger when you slip it out. This technique gives you a pin-up that brushes out to make a softer and more lasting curl.

She had hardly alighted from a taxicab with her husband, Frank, when she noticed her purse was missing. Her husband called police. But Cabby Oddy Alsbury already was on his way back to the DeWitts' destination. DeWitt gave Alsbury a reward. His wife clutched her purse which contained jewelry valued at $10,000.

Don't Tote A Weary Load

By Alicia Hart, NEA Staff Writer

Do you tote the same carry-all day after day just because that's so much easier than switching its contents to another handbag?

If you do, you aren't being very fair to yourself. The handbag has never been designed which will "go with" everything. A bag that's right for a dressy suit will be too sophisticated a companion for a tweed sports coat, and vice versa.

Many women carry one handbag because they think it's a nuisance or it takes too much time to change. Changing needn't ever be a problem and will prolong the life of any handbag if some of the articles in it are reduced by a dozen or so items.

Do you really need everything that you carry around with you? Are old receipts, theater stubs, loose bobby pins, old letters, pieces of string, odd keys, and swatches of chintz or dress fabric really essential to lug around? Why not dump the contents of your handbag out on a paper spread over your bed and see just how much of its burden can be lightened? A check-up is certain to hold surprises.

Once you have winnowed out the number of things that you carry around, changing handbags won't be a chore. And the result will be that you'll find yourself swinging along with lighter footsteps, nicer posture, and feeling better organized and more efficient when you have to dig into your handbag for carfare, charge plate, house keys, or what-have-you?

Couple Married
In Home Rites
Here Saturday

The home of Mrs. Bernice Heimlich, 223 West College avenue, was the scene of a lovely wedding ceremony Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when her granddaughter, Miss Frances M. Heimlich, became the bride of Richard F. Lynn.

The bride is the daughter of Edgar H. Heimlich of St. Louis and makes her home in his city with her grandmother. Mr. Lynn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lynn, 106
Spaulding Place.

The couple exchanged vows in a double-ring service performed by Rev. Frank Marston in front of a fireplace adorned with flowers.

Attending the couple were Miss Bonnie Thompson of Rock Island, as maid of honor, and Ralph Evans
as best man.

Bride Wears White
The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a street length dress of white crepe, featuring seed pearl design around the neckline. She wore brown suede accessories and carried pink carnations on a white Bible.

A street length dress of rose crepe was worn by Miss Thompson. Her accessories were black and she carried a nosegay of blue flowers and white roses.

For her granddaughter's marriage,
Mrs. Heimlich chose gray, with which she wore black accessories and a corsage of red carnations. Mrs.
Lynn, the bridegroom's mother, wore beige with green accessories and a corsage of talismans roses.

Reception Follows
Following the wedding, a reception was given at the Heimlich home.
Miss Marilyn Cruse acted as hostess and registered the guests. Fred Self had charge of the music. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. William

Mrs. LaVerne Whitton.

The couple then left on a wedding trip, after which they will reside at 600 West State street.

Mrs. Lynn is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and attended Illinois college for two years. Her husband attended school here and graduated at Pontiac, Mich. He was employed for two years in Wichita,

WHITE HALL

White Hall—Sam King, who was injured seriously early in December while working near Decatur, Ill., and has been in St. Mary's hospital since the accident, is convalescing rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Seely of Peoria, Ill., were here recently and took his mother, Mrs. Carrie Seely, home with them for an indefinite visit. Mrs. Seely has been a patient in the White Hall hospital for several weeks due to a serious illness.

Mrs. Bud Powell of Hillview, who has been a patient at a Jacksonville hospital, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bruce and daughter, Nancy Jean, have returned to their home in Bishop, California, after a lengthy visit in Hillview with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bruce and Mr. and Mrs. George Ford.

When lava from Mt. Etna swept over the city of Catania in 1169 A. D. it is believed that 15,000 people were killed.

FLYING SAUCERS? SURE, HE'S GOT 'EM—Most of the flying-saucer stories are a little on the vague side. But Dr. E. W. Kay of Glendale, Calif., above, has a flying saucer that he built himself and that he believes will revolutionize aviation. His 41-inch, 20-pound test model rises from the ground and spins in a 36-foot circle at 72 miles an hour. Vanes on the rim of the whirling disk open by centrifugal force, making it act like a helicopter. Once in the air, the vanes can be closed and the disk scoots away like a whirling top. U. S. Air Force officials recently watched a test flight of Dr. Kay's revolutionary flying disk.

Fire Protection For Chapin Area Discussed

Seventy citizens of Chapin and surrounding area attended a discussion of plans for organizing a fire protection district at a meeting held Thursday night at the Chapin American Legion building. A committee was appointed to study tentative boundary lines and will make its report at another public meeting to be called when the survey is completed.

Legal steps necessary for the formation of a fire protection district were explained by Attorney Harry G. Story of Jacksonville. He said the first step is the establishment of boundary lines.

The committee appointed for study of boundary lines consists of William Fisher, chairman; James Anderson, Lloyd Anderson, Austin Moody and Ted Kershaw.

Attorney Story said that existing boundaries such as township lines should be used to avoid confusion. After an area has been designated as a fire protection area, it is reviewed by the courts and if found to be satisfactory, an election is held by citizens within the area to vote on the plan.

The attorney stated that such districts are financed by a tax levy not to exceed 126 cents per $100 assessed valuation, and the levy will decrease after equipment is purchased.

Leaders in the project around Chapin said that if it is approved at an election, the fire-fighting equipment should be ready for operation within a few months.

Attorney Story pointed out the advantages of a fire protection district and how the plan works in other areas. He declared a substantial saving can be made in insurance rates by organization of a fire protection district.

Announcement will be made of the date when the boundary study committee will make its report.

ISD Claims Championship In Louisiana Tournament

Arenzville Nips Chapin 26-22 For PMSCC Crown; O. S. Five Takes Third

Arenzville's grade school basketball team won a close game with Chapin in the final of the PMSCC tournament at South Jacksonville Saturday night.

Led by Jimmy Costello, who scored 17 points, Father Morris' Our Saviour's five outlasted Bluffs 27-25 to take consolation honors before a capacity crowd.

The championship bout was a thriller from start to finish. Tied 11-11 at halftime, Arenzville came back after the intermission to go ahead 17-15 in the third quarter. The little Cass county quint outpassed and outshot a bigger Chapin gang in the final quarter to claim the victory.

J. Coats was high gunner for Arenzville, netting nine counter. Aufdenkamp scored 16 for Chapin.

Costello and McGuire were high scorers for Our Saviour's with 17 and 11 each. Merris was top marksman for Bluffs, swishing 11 tallies.

J. Merle Wade, tournament manager and principal of the South Jacksonville grade school, presented the trophies.

WESTERN DOWNS NORTHERN 57 TO 43

Macomb, Ill. Jan. 14—(P)—Western of Macomb posted its second successive I.I.A.C. basketball win and its 50th consecutive victory at home by downing northern of Dekalb 57-43 Saturday.

Western took a 32-24 edge at halftime and led throughout the game. Gene Redman with 15 points headed the winners while Ed Reisser with 14 topped Northern.

The win was Western's 10th in 11 games this season.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Jan. 14—(P)—Hogs sold within a $13.25 to $16.50 range today, ending the week around 25 cents lower than last Saturday. The drop was enough to carry local prices below the government guide here late in the six day period.

As the week closed, the agriculture department urged more orderly marketing by farmers. Receipts this week were the largest for any week since February, 1944. Next week the government guide — an average of barrows and gilts at seven markets — will rise to $15.50.

The agriculture department said it has plans ready to step into the pork market "immediately" if that should be necessary to hold up live hog prices.

Lower prices also ruled in the cattle and sheep sections. Steers and yearlings lost 50 cents to $1.50. Lamb receipts showed a big expansion and prices dropped 75 cents to $1.50.

GRAINS MOVE UP SLOWLY ON BOARD OF TRADE

Chicago, Jan. 14—(P)—Grains worked their way upward in a somewhat hesitant fashion on the board of trade today. The better tone in stocks at New York had a favorable influence on trading sentiment here.

The new crop deliveries climbed around a cent. Buying was based in part on cold weather over much of the winter wheat section, a good part of which lacks a snow cover to protect the grain. Dealings were not very active on the advance.

Wheat also was helped by trade advice that Portugal had purchased 3,000 tons of red wheat for loading next week out of Atlantic coast ports. This is the type of wheat which has acted as a drag on prices in the local market. Presumably, the wheat will be obtained from supplies east of here.

Cash grain dealers reported sales of 75,000 bushels of corn for movement from here by rail. This helped the yellow cereal.

Wheat closed 1-1/4 higher, March $2.15-2.16, corn was 1/2 lower to 1 higher, March $1.29, oats were 1/2 lower to 1 higher, May $1.41, soybeans were 1/2 to 1 cent higher, March $2.32-1/2, and hard was 7 to 13 cents a hundred pounds higher, March $10.70.

Preliminary estimated receipts of grain in cars here today: wheat 2: corn 133; oats 26; rye 2; barley 2; and soybeans 6.

A survey estimates that average working hours in 1950 will be around 41 hours a week; in 1960 about 38 hours per week.

David Prince Tourney Starts Wednesday PM, ISD Number-One Team

Illinois School for the Deaf is rated the number one grade school team entered in the David Prince junior high school invitational basketball tournament which will get underway on the downtown boards Wednesday afternoon at 4 p.m.

David Prince, the host five in the eight-team grade school tourney, was named the second place entry. Roodhouse ranks third and Murrayville drew a fourth place rating.

Other teams entered in the meet, though not rated, are White Hall, Tovey, Our Saviours (Jacksonville) and Winchester.

I.S.D. gets the tournament underway Wednesday afternoon, tangling with the underdog White Hall Maroons at 4 p.m. There will be no admission charge for this first game, thus allowing the students to attend without first going home. Admission will be charged for all other games, however, stressed DP Principal Conant.

In game number-two at 6:15 p.m. Wednesday, Roodhouse will tangle with Tovey—the team that is replacing Taylorville, last year's champion.

Our Saviour's meets Murrayville at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday and Coach Bill Wards David Prince club tangles with Winchester in what is billed as the best match of the first-round games, at 8:15 p.m.

Semi-finals are scheduled for 7 and 8 p.m. Thursday night with the consolation and championship matches slated for the same time Friday.

Tigers Edge West Pike 31-27 When Long Shot Hits In Last Seconds

Louisiana, Mo. — Spike Wilson's Illinois School for the Deaf hoopers moved uphill all the way here Saturday night and finally came out on the long end of a 31-27 count over West Pike, Ill., to claim the championship in the class A bracket of the Louisiana invitational tournament.

The score was tied at 27-27 with one minute of play remaining. I.S.D. controlled the ball for 50 seconds before guard Eddy Raffel loosed a long, two-handed shot that scored and shoved the Jacksonville gang into a two-point lead with about six seconds remaining. Leo Cecil stole the ball and dropped in a lay-up shot to provide the clincher as the horn sounded, ending play.

The Tigers moved into the championship game by topping the first-place rated Bayless, Mo., quintet in an overtime tussle Friday night. Bayless won third place in the meet by topping the host Louisiana quintet.

I. S. D. lagged 11-10 at the end of the first chapter and 16-13 at halftime. They rallied in the third period and brought the score up 24-24 going into the last frame.

Leo Cecil led Tiger scoring with 17 counters. Thompson scored 11 for West Pike.

Irvin Carlstedt fouled out of the game in the third quarter but again was ably replaced by Doyle West.

North Central Dumps Blueboys From CCI Lead With 74-72 Win

Naperville, Ill.—Illinois college was moved back a notch in its quest for a Little Nine conference title Saturday night, falling victims to the Cardinals of North Central in a 74-72 overtime bout.

The Blueboys, who before moving to Naperville, boasted the only undefeated mark in the conference and consequently led the league with a 1-0 standing, were dropped way down in the ranking with a 50 per cent record.

Bob Grove, I.C. guard, led all scoring with 27 points. Illinois College trailed 36-28 at the half.

The Hilltoppers played the entire overtime session without regulars Bill Gross—who rose from a sick bed to make the trip, Don Longer and Barney Vilk who left the game on fouls with eight, five and three minutes of regular playing time remaining.

The Cardinals used a pressing defense early in the game and slowed down the I.C. athletes for a time. However, the Jacksonville collegians started moving in the second half and almost snatched victory from defeat.

The Blueboys led by three points with several minutes to go but failed to hold the advantage over the rushing Redbirds.

Al Miller will spend this week prepping his band for another conference tussle next Saturday. The Blueboys play host to Illinois Wesleyan in the C.C.I. tilt at the I.S.D. gym.

Far behind Hart, Jackie Robinson famed negro second-baseman of the Brooklyn Dodgers, placed second by a narrow margin over Sammy Sneed, the year's outstanding golfer, with Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox fourth and Joe Pavee, star relief pitcher of the New York Yankees fifth.

On a point basis—three for a first place vote, two for second and one for third—Hart piled up a landslide margin of 104 to 55 over Robinson. The runner-up, who previously was voted the National League's most valuable player, received only eight first place votes.

The result was far different from a year ago, when Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians soaked the points over Bob Mathias, the Olympic decathlon champion, 156-149. Boudreau did not receive a vote in the present poll.

Sneed, who won far more money than any other golfer and was awarded the Vardon trophy as the year's top linkman, received 10 first place votes to Robinson's eight, but wound up with three fewer points than Jack's 55.

Williams, the American League's "most valuable," was a solid fourth choice with three first place admirers and 40 points. Pavee, the lefty whose relief exploits helped carry the Yanks to a pennant and a world series victory over Brooklyn, scored six firsts and 35 points.

Then came George Mikan, towering star of the Minneapolis Lakers of the National Basketball Association, sixth with 24 points, and Jack Kramer, giant of the professional tennis game, seventh with 16. Mathias, who gave Boudreau such a granole for the '48 crown, was next with 13 points.

In all, 40 athletes representing almost every sport except Kelly pool, got their names somewhere in the balloting. Twenty-seven of them were in at least one voter's opinion, worthy of the highest accolade.

Pawnee high school has joined Northwestern as a new member of the MSM conference. This announcement was made by M. O. McMullin, principal of the Virden high school who is working out a new basketball schedule for the ten team loop. The schedule which will give each member a nine game chart must first meet the approval of the members when it comes up at the spring meeting.

Of the eight schools currently participating in the race only three have a overall season's record better than five hundred. They are the three current undefeated leaders, Morrisonville with a 7-1 record, Nokomis with a 7-2 record and Waverly with a 6-3 record. Virden has the next top record 6-7, while Northwestern, out of the race this year, boasts a 6-5 record. Two of those leaders tangle in what might decide the title at Nokomis this Friday night when the Redskins entertain Morrisonville in the feature of the week. Virden, "fighting mad" after their defeat by their two bitter rivals (Girard 33-32 and Waverly 33-27) last week, may give the Nokomis five trouble Tuesday night. Two other conference games are on tap for this week. Auburn is at Girard on Tuesday and Virden at St. James Saturday. Non-league tilts find Tuesday—Morrisonville at Tri-City and Farmerville at St. James; Thursday—Chanderville at St. James and Saturday Rochester at Auburn.

The Routt Rockets broke even against MSM competition. First they found the Waverly Scotties back on the beam as they lost a 47-38 game but came back to whip St. James 51-37. Auburn hadn't won a game going into the C.M.S. tournament, but in their first game they edged out Mt. Auburn 46-45 then they lost a couple of heartbreakers, losing to Farmersville in the semi-finals 35-29 and dropping a overtime tilt 37-35 to Rochester in the battle for third place. Kincaid pulled a mild upset Tuesday when they spilled the highly rated Nokomis five 46-45, Nokomis however did come back to spill Girard 45-27 in a conference game.

Waverly and Northwestern will be busy next week in the pioneer Winchester tournament. Waverly will carry its 8-3 record against Hardin, a team that no one knows much about. These two teams battle it out Tuesday afternoon if the Scotties get into Jacksonville Wednesday night. Northwestern has trouble in the first start, running into the number two team, Mt. Sterling Tuesday night.

EMERGENCY ENDED
Athens, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Emergency measures invoked to meet the Communist-led rebellion in 1946 were on the way out today.

King Paul has signed a royal decree suspending the emergency act throughout Greece. It suspended such constitutional clauses as the right of free speech and assembly.

ROCKET SQUADRON LEADERS

DICK CASLER A. J. SPREEN

Routt high school basketball coach P. J. Stroud will be depending on these two Rocket seniors more than a little when the local east-siders lock horns with the Pittsfield Saueks in the feature game of the March of Dimes Benefit hardwood program at ISD Wednesday night.

A. J. Spreen and Dick Casler, both seniors, have been the bell-wethers of six Routt wins. Spreen, a guard, is captain of the team while the bespectacled Casler plays forward.

Winchester Tournament Starts Monday Afternoon; JHS, Milton Meet At 6 PM

Winchester — The 28th annual Winchester Invitational basketball tournament will get underway Monday afternoon. Seventeen high school clubs from this section of Illinois will fight it out for top honors in the meet, one of the oldest in Illinois.

Jacksonville high school, the only entry from the Morgan county seat, will meet the Milton Mustangs in their first test at 6 p.m. Monday.

Roodhouse and Pleasant Hill open tournament hostilities at 4:30 Monday afternoon. White Hall and Griggsville meet at 7:45, after the Jacksonville game and Winchester tangles with Bluffs, its Scott county rival in the Monday finale.

Tuesday afternoon and evening will wind up first-round ventures. Quarter-finals are set for Wednesday and Thursday; semi-finals, Friday and the consolation and championship Saturday evening.

Griggsville is rated the number one-team in the tournament, followed by Mt. Sterling, Jacksonville, Carrollton, Winchester, Jerseyville, Waverly, Chapin, White Hall, Northwestern, Milton, Nebo, Bluffs, Franklin, Hardin, Roodhouse and Pleasant Hill in that order.

Rushville not entered this year won the 1949 crown, Nebo and Bluffs quintets own the distinction of being the only teams to win the meet three years running.

The host Winchester Wildcats won the tournament in the first year of its existence—1923. Jacksonville high, under Coach John Mitchell, downed Versailles 17-16 to cop the title in 1925.

Bill Plummer and John Fraser of Alton and Max Miller and Dan Robbins of Macomb are the officials this year.

MINNESOTA WINS First Loop Game, Hits Purdue 67-40
Minneapolis, Jan. 14.—(AP)—Minnesota tonight won its first Big Ten basketball game of the season, beating Purdue, 67 to 40. The Gophers piled up a 33 to 16 margin at the half.

Except for the opening moments of the game, Minnesota was never headed. A crowd of 12,262 saw the contest.

While Dick Axness, Purdue forward, was setting the pace for his teammates with 13 points, he got no support from guard Howie Williams who was kept bottled up and failed to tally a single field goal.

Minnesota controlled the rebounds on both ends of the floor as Captain Whitey Skoog accounted for 23 points. Giving him strong support was Maynard Johnson at center who tallied 15.

Dick Means, a sophomore moved from guard to forward, filled in a weak gap in the Minnesota lineup, scoring 10 points on field goals.

Jim Buckley, Jerry Barber's ace follower in Jacksonville, has come up with another stirring tribute written about the little guy who not too many years ago was playing his golf at Nichols Park. This time it's a columnist's-eye view of the "rain-out" deal in the Los Angeles Ope as published in the Pasadena Star News, Tuesday, Jan. 10.

Written by Shavenau Glick in a column entitled "Down In Front," the article hints that everyone was screaming "Jerry was robbed" except the golfer himself.

He's currently participating in the Bing Crosby pro-amateur tournament.

"What ever happens to Jerry Barber today over Riviera's deceitful 18 holes in the final round of the Los Angeles Open, the little golf glove designer has made his mark as a champion.

The mark of a real champion is how he reacts to adversity. Jerry Barber received the worst kind of a break possible Sunday when his 73 in the rain and slush was wiped out of the 89 other golfers that the $2600 first prize money was his beyond any doubt—his first big victory after two years on the tournament trail.

What was Jerry's reaction? "It was a wonderful thing for the farmers," Barber said, "and I guess it's better for me to be broke than for the whole community."

What did he do about it? He went right out and stroked his putter with the same old sureness that has the golfing fraternity buzzing. Right down to rolling in a 20 footer on the tricky 18th green which has been the three-putt haven of TV fans who have watched many a curling putt slide tantalizingly past the cup.

"Who is this Jerry Barber and where did he come from?" is a question often heard around Riviera's catacombs.

Smallest Golfer In The Big Show
"Jerry Barber looks like another Ben Hogan coming up." But only since August 1948 has he played tournament golf for a living. The smallest man on the tour—standing 5 ft. 5 in. and weighing 138 pounds—Barber came to Southern California in 1942 from Illinois to work in an aircraft factory. When the war ended, Jerry operated the Montebello Driving Range, where he started the rigid grind of perfecting his game for tournament conditions. Two years later he was ready.

On July 2, 1948, Jerry and his wife Lucille set out to see if he could make a living matching golf shots with the greatest players in the game. Starting at the Tam O'Shanter Open in August, the little man, who by now had moved to Pasadena, played out the tour. In 1948, Barber played in the entire tour, getting in the money on 14 different occasions. Two fine performances stand out in that grueling year—a final round 65 at Jacksonville Open which enabled him to finish second behind Dr. Cary Middlecoff and a 66 in the Minneapolis Pro-Amateur which was good for $600 first money.

Two fine performances stand out in that grueling year—a final round 65 at Jacksonville Open which enabled him to finish second behind Dr. Cary Middlecoff and a 66 in the Minneapolis Pro-Amateur which was good for $600 first money.

Back in Pasadena, it was more practice and more practice for Jerry. At night he taught golf lessons at the Hastings Ranch Driving Range. Then came the $2500 Montebello Open and the name "Jerry Barber" began to rocket across the skies. Three sub-par rounds of 64-68-68 gave Jerry a check for $500 and a 10th wedding anniversary present for his wife.

Lloyd Mangrum, in presenting Jerry with his victory check at Montebello, said:

"Jerry Barber looks like another Ben Hogan coming up."

That was on Christmas Eve and now, less than two weeks later, Barber is making Mangrum look like a prophet.

Jerry's wife, Lucille, is his inspiration. During the cloudburst on Sunday when the rain was drenching everything in sight, Lucille followed Jerry's every shot. When it was all over and it looked like her husband was a first money certainty, Lucille was the first to congratulate him with a big kiss.

"She was wonderful," Jerry said, "several times she brought me towels from the clubhouse and her encouragement meant an awful lot."

Hours later, at 4:06 p. m. after 67 of the 90 golfers had finished their round, tournament officials declared the whole thing off. No one would have criticized Jerry for screaming "foul" at the top of his voice, for it cut a good eight strokes off his hard earned lead. But not Barber.

"I guess I'll just have to go out tomorrow and play 18 more."

That was the hall mark of a champion.

Tennessee Upsets Kentucky 66-53
Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Tennessee's basketball team took a commanding lead at the start Saturday night and never let up to score a smashing 66 to 53 upset win over Kentucky's national collegiate champions.

INQUIRY OF U. S. AID
Manila, Jan. 14.—(AP)—The Philippines congress opening Jan. 23 may investigate Secretary of State Acheson's charges that American post-war aid has been misused here.

The inquiry was suggested today by members of President Elpidio Quirino's majority Liberal party and followers of the minority Nacionalista party headed by Jose P. Laurel, puppet president under the Japanese.

Routt Meets Pittsfield, Benld, Carthage Play In ISD Gym Wednesday

Jacksonville basketball followers will have a chance to be in on a cross-state examination of high school cage teams at the ISD gymnasium Wednesday night. The March of Dimes committee announced this week that a double-header prep hardwood program has been lined up to promote the campaign in this vicinity.

Only local team on the program is the Routt Rockets, tutored by Paul Stroud. The locals will tangle with the popular Pittsfield Saueks, this section's "sweet sixteen" representative last year in the feature game at 8:30 in the westend arena.

Officials went out of the usual vicinity in contacting two teams to play in the preliminary in an effort to give local fans a chance to see how teams stack up in other parts of Illinois. Benld, who currently ranks first in the South Central conference, is scheduled to meet Carthage, also a tough cookie this season in the 7 p.m. preliminary.

The special event committee, headed by Basil Sorrells, assisted by Elmer Lukeman, Bill Hofmann, Bill Ransdall and Joe Doyle, said last night that the Illinois School for Deaf gymnasium facilities were donated by Superintendent Daniel Cloud.

The Athletic Booster club has agreed to furnish ushers and ticket takers for the game. The Boosters have furnished such for two tournaments in Jacksonville already since their organization.

Also, the two officials, Jim Buckley and Orville Sherwood, both of Jacksonville, donated their work for both games.

Coaches who graciously offered to allow the teams to compete in the benefit program are, besides Paul Stroud of Routt, Glenn Smith, Pittsfield; A. T. Tenicket, Benld and Art Keller, Carthage.

The committee stressed in its announcement that this will be the only means of raising money for the March of Dimes in Jacksonville. They urge all basketball fans to make their contribution by coming to the game. Prices will be reasonable, well under a dollar, said chairman Sorrells. There will, of course, be an adult and student admission price.

ARMED FORCES

ARMY

Relative size of the armed forces as calculated in the President's budget for fiscal year ending June 30, 1951.

NAVY

MARINE CORPS

	ACTIVE	RESERVE
ARMY	630,000	605,000
NAVY	387,000	205,000
AIR FORCE	74,500	51,000
MARINE CORPS	416,000	118,000

President Truman has asked Congress to spend $13,500,000,000—almost one-third of the total budget—for a compact, well-equipped fighting force capable of rapid expansion in view of "current world circumstances." Overall cut in military personnel from present strength is about three per cent; but, because of cutbacks in overhead, the total personnel assigned to combat forces will be the greatest since the demobilization following World War II. The Marine Corps suffers the greatest cut, of 11,300 men, or about 13 per cent of total strength. The President's plan calls for 10 Army divisions, a 48-group Air Force and a fleet of 238 warships—about the same as now.

MAN DAYS LOST THROUGH STRIKES

Last year's strike-loss record was the second worst in U. S. history, according to the Department of Labor. But the number of man-days lost through strikes was still far below the all-time record year of 1946. This chart gives the number of man-days of production lost through strikes for the past four years.

Year	Man Days Lost
1946	116,000,000
1947	34,559,000
1948	34,100,000
1949	53,000,000

"I KNEW something would happen," my mother wept, standing mournfully over my sickbed so that I began to listen for a eulogy. "It must have been some exposure that night the burglar came."

John always marvels at the perverse kind of satisfaction it seems to give most people, if they can find something concrete to blame an illness on. Every cold has a definite, identifiable draft for a sponsor; every headache has a specific parent too, from sinus to shrimps. ("I knew they were spoiled!"). Indeed, there are no orphan complaints. John loves to tell about the old man of 70, who in the final throes of a coronary thrombosis (formerly erroneously called "acute indigestion") shouted to his wife with whom he had just celebrated his golden wedding anniversary: "I'd never have gotten sick if I didn't eat the soup you made last night!"

If making a scapegoat out of a harmless drunk made Mother happy, I would be the last to object.

"Aren't you going to take her to a hospital?" my father, being a man of efficiency, asked next.

"I won't go," I shrieked, sitting straight up in bed. "Never again will I laugh at the many people who protest to the bitter end that they 'will die in their own beds.' Not that I thought of really dying. The greatest safeguard against such hysteria that anyone can have is a good, strong ego, like mine, which says in moments of crisis, 'This can't be happening to me!' and ends by coating everything with a protective layer of unreality."

But my mother ignored me, and spoke to John as if I weren't there. "She can't stay here," she said. "Who'll take care of her?"

Freda, who had come in as soon as she had heard I was sick, via the neighborhood grapevine, said: "I'll take care of her, if you like. I was once supposed to be a nurse, and I'd love to help Mrs. B. Besides, I'll only charge half of the regular fee since I'm not an R.N., and I'll cook, too."

"Sold," I exclaimed so suddenly, that my mother wept: "She's delirious," and John ran to feel my pulse.

AND from there on, we were off on a rather unconventional, but satisfying illness. I would like to be able to report that I remembered every detail, and be able to recount it like Irvin S. Cobb and his operations. Or else, I certainly would like to be able to announce that I entered the romantic kind of Hollywood fog, strictly reserved for heroines. Unfortunately, there was neither the conventional blow-by-blow description nor the respectable blank coma for me; for although chronological sequence was gone, many basic facts remained.

To begin with, John's friends at the hospital heard the news about my illness and hurried over. Each man of them behaved as if he had never heard a real pneumonia before, and insisted upon a personal examination to confirm the diagnosis. "Right here," the visiting diagnostician would say, happily pounding my chest as if it were a back door on a speakeasy.

"Let me listen," another would say, coming forward as to a symphony concert. Then after a moment he, too, would pronounce triumphantly, "That's the spot all right!"

Then they would discuss "the case" like museum curators over a newly discovered mummy.

"Marked pallor," one would say, making me feel like Ophelia.

"Shallow respirations," another would declare, until I began to feel it was just a matter of minutes before they'd hang the Rest-In-Peace wreath about my neck.

Finally, I said to John: "I can't stand it any more! Maybe they mean well, and maybe I wouldn't mind so much if it were my toenails they kept looking at, but as it is, I..."

Just then, another doctor came smiling into the doorway.

"Get him out of here," I shrieked, hiding in my bed.

"He's gone," John said after a brief minute, and so he had. But with him had gone the information that poor Mrs. B. was out of her head and raving. "Isn't it too bad?" everyone said gleefully in the staff room.

FREDA was an unorthodox delight from start to finish. The nurse's training she referred to must have been purely in the aspirational stage, but her intentions, like Caesar's wife, were above suspicion. She did her work as if she had a handbook on nursing rolled up in her stocking for emergency consultation, and she found my common-sense lack of co-operation very disturbing.

Each morning, for instance, she wanted to change the linen. I held out for an extra day.

"We don't have enough sheets for daily changes," I said, "and soon I'll be lying on the bare mattress."

"Hospitals change every day," she replied dogmatically.

The battle raged good-humoredly from morning to morning, with the final score an even tie. On the days that Freda won, though, the resultant bedmaking was a Houdinian exhibition. She was supposed to be the master "now you see it, now you don't" magician, while I was assigned to the role of star trapeze artist, and was often left clinging by a single bar into empty space, without a safety net.

"I'm falling!" I would yell, and poor Freda would haul me back aboard by my nightgown. "You've pinned me under," was another SOS, and once, when the mad scramble was finished, we were all hilariously delighted to find that the clean sheet was on the floor in a heap, with the soiled one neatly and firmly tucked back on the bed.

Welfare Head Speaker At Woman's Club Meet

George Whitley, superintendent of the Division for Youth and Community Service, Illinois Department of Public Welfare, was the speaker at the January meeting of the Jacksonville Woman's club, which took place Saturday afternoon at the Dunlap hotel.

Mr. Whitley, who based his address on "Community Forces in the Behavior of Children," discussed the changes which the first half of the 20th century has brought in social attitudes and outlined a six-point program designed to help to

Capping Ceremony Friday For Class At Our Saviour's

Eleven preclinical students of Our Saviour's Hospital School of Nursing will participate in a capping ceremony, which will take place in the hospital chapel next Friday at 8 p.m.

Sister Clare Anne, director of nurses, will present the nurse's cap, and the students, holding lighted Nightingale lamps, will pronounce the traditional pledge of dedication to the sick.

The simple, impressive ceremony will terminate formally the preliminary period of training for these students, some of whom entered the nursing school last July, and others in August. They are to complete their basic nursing education in 1950.

Parents of the students will be invited guests. Following the capping ceremony, both groups will enjoy a social hour in the lounge of the nurses' home.

Two Jacksonville residents are among the preclinical students: Miss Maryanne Lawless, rural route 6, and Harry L. Wright, 802 South East street.

The other students are the Misses Patricia LaPollette, Barbara Newingham, and Mary Ann Stucke, Beardstown; Helen Franklin, Alsey; Rita Nellson, Davenport; Iowa; Theresa Rains, Springfield; Dorothy Richey, Medora; and Norma Jean Vinyard, Roodhouse.

Sportsmen Meet at Cabin
The Meredosia Sportsmen's club met Thursday night at the Legion cabin. The members have completed their building, located a half mile north of town at the trap-shoot grounds and all future meetings will be held there.

It was decided to hold a fox drive Wednesday, Jan. 18. All those wishing to participate will meet at the new building at one p.m. The club voted to erect a sign on the new building, patterned after the emblem now in use.

At the conclusion refreshments were served by Charles Walker, J. L. McCormick and Roy Simmons.

The next meeting will be Jan. 26. Entertainment is planned.

College Study Changes Suggested By AAUW

Plans have been completed for the discussion of the interim report, "AAUW Members Look at College Education," at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 18, at Jacksonville high school when a general meeting for the purpose of acquainting those present with the aims of the national committee on education in calling for group discussions led by Mrs. John Agger, Miss Frances Bailey, Miss Amelia DeMotte and Mrs. E. C. Savage. Among the changes suggested by the questionnaire sent out to AAUW members all over the country in 1948 is that of "better planning to give the student a broader background and greater flexibility to meet the individual student's particular interests. Many members said that if they were repeating their college work today they would want to have a broader training—a more rounded background, "time to take the courses I really wanted," "less emphasis on bread-and-butter living," a general view of all fields of knowledge."

"They would like to see that each student has the opportunity to explore widely, to try courses in which she thinks she might be interested, and discover new interests and potentials of which she has been unaware. In other words, in the opinion of AAUW members, the aim of college training should be the maximum development of the individual—not fitting a student into a given mold, but helping each one find what she needs and wants from college training and then making it possible for her to arrange a program without being bound by rigid requirements."

Taking as a starting point this interest in the maximum development of each individual through flexible training, and without losing sight of other purposes of education the groups are asked to discuss the question: "What can colleges do to ensure that students achieve integration in their training?"

For the past two weeks, the 30 available copies of the interim report have been circulated by the following committee: Mrs. Agger, Mrs. Violet Auwarter, Miss Gertrude Ayers, Mrs. W. F. Bailey, Miss Anne Bellatti, Miss Elizabeth Brown, Mrs. J. P. Bossarte, Mrs. McKendree Blair, Mrs. John Conant, Mrs. P. J. Davidsmeyer, Mrs. John E. Doyle, Mrs. H. E. Gollier, Mrs. Charles Henske, Mrs. Gordon Lemme, Mrs. D. M. McDermott, Miss Margaret K. Moore, Miss Laura Roehning, Mrs. E. C. Savage, Miss Mary Waller and Miss Mabel Withee.
